

2018 PHNAC Awards

Exemplary Frontier Public Health Nurse Award

Recipient: Allison Duran (Montezuma County Public Health Department)

This award recognizes a public health nurse who has demonstrated exemplary service in a local public health agency located in a Colorado's rural/frontier community. Allison has been working in public health field for over 18 years. She is the supervisor for the successful Montezuma County Nurse Family Partnership Program. Her colleagues and community members truly appreciate that she brings passion, tenacity, perseverance, and compassion to her team and clients.

Lillian Wald Award

Recipient: Jacqueline Revello (Teller County Public Health and Environment)

Lillian Wald was a nurse, social worker, public health official, teacher, author, editor, publisher, women's rights activist, and the founder of American community nursing. This award is given to an experienced public health nurse who demonstrates leadership skills among peers and community; and is creative, resourceful and innovative in addressing public health concerns in the community. This person is caring in relationships with colleagues and clients, and initiates, implements and evaluates public health interventions that focus on health promotion and disease prevention, and shares public health knowledge with colleagues and the community. Jacqueline has worked in public health for 7 years. She has shined as a leader for the Health Department, the community, and public health nursing in Colorado this past year as Director. Her team and community members greatly appreciate her dedication, passion, humor, as well as her caring and supportive leadership.

General Recognition Award

Recipient: Michelle Wilson (Tri-County Health Department)

Michelle has been a long-time active PHNAC member who's been helping with many Public Health in the Rockies planning committee tasks. She has helped with setting up successful Silent Auction activities for a few years. PHNAC appreciates that Michelle is always willing to step in to assist and take on more tasks for the organization.